

Welcome to Griffydam Chapel In the Valley

Jesus has told this Church to go and make disciples and teach them to obey Him

...Therefore welcome one another as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God.- Romans 15:7

Services for week commencing Sunday 6th September 2026

At 11.00 am with Cliff and at Ibstock at 5.00 pm with David Harrup
There is prayer time on Zoom at 9.30 am this Sunday, and at 9.00 am on Monday

This September from 6th -13th is the Global Week of 24-7 Prayer and the vision is simple but powerful: to see non-stop prayer in every nation on earth, lifting up the name of Jesus and asking God to move across the world. Loads of countries have signed up and Chapel in the Valley has too.

The Prayer Room will be set up in the Conference Room and will be available from 6-13 Sept between 8am and 8pm. Below is an online link to sign up or use a paper copy in chapel.

And also (part 3)

Our Wednesday coffee mornings have now finished for a while.

Watch this space for when we will resume.

Let us pray;

- With thanks for the many and varied blessing we receive daily from the Lord; for those that strike us with great joy and certainty and for those, often unnoticed and unrecognised and for which we seldom give thanks but without which we would not function.
- For each other, especially those known to our fellowship, sick or serving, lonely or lost, seeking or sought.
- For those who continuing to suffer from the effect of the disasters in Nepal/Tibet, and for those who are continuing to bring rescue and succour.
- This Sunday's prayer organisation is Embrace the Middle East - "As a Christian development charity, we partner with Christians in the Middle East as they work to transform lives and restore the dignity of the most excluded and marginalised communities. Where there is a need – for refuge, a home, for health care, for education, for justice and human rights – we, with our partners, respond. Our goal is to contribute to a culture of human flourishing in a troubled region."

John 11:17-37 – Jesus comforts the sisters of Lazarus

¹⁷ On his arrival, Jesus found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days. ¹⁸ Now Bethany was less than two miles from Jerusalem, ¹⁹ and many Jews had come to Martha and Mary to comfort them in the loss of their brother. ²⁰ When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went out to meet him, but Mary stayed at home.

²¹ “Lord,” Martha said to Jesus, “if you had been here, my brother would not have died. ²² But I know that even now God will give you whatever you ask.”

²³ Jesus said to her, “Your brother will rise again.”

²⁴ Martha answered, “I know he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day.”

²⁵ Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die; ²⁶ and whoever lives by believing in me will never die. Do you believe this?”

²⁷ “Yes, Lord,” she replied, “I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, who is to come into the world.”

²⁸ After she had said this, she went back and called her sister Mary aside. “The Teacher is here,” she said, “and is asking for you.” ²⁹ When Mary heard this, she got up quickly and went to him. ³⁰ Now Jesus had not yet entered the village, but was still at the place where Martha had met him. ³¹ When the Jews who had been with Mary in the house, comforting her, noticed how quickly she got up and went out, they followed her, supposing she was going to the tomb to mourn there.

³² When Mary reached the place where Jesus was and saw him, she fell at his feet and said, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.”

³³ When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who had come along with her also weeping, he was deeply moved in spirit and troubled. ³⁴ “Where have you laid him?” he asked.

“Come and see, Lord,” they replied.

³⁵ Jesus wept.

³⁶ Then the Jews said, “See how he loved him!”

³⁷ But some of them said, “Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?”
