- The 'Other Bible Study' at CIV will recommence this coming Friday (30th October)

Let us pray;

- In praise of a Saviour who through His tender mercies frees us from our waywardness as we look to Him with thankful hearts and minds.
- For each other, especially those dear to our fellowship especially Daphne and John; sick or serving, lonely or lost, seeking or sought.
- For the Church in this country, large or small, that all may listen to the Saviour and point others to Him. We pray especially for our churches round and about that we may be both blessed and a blessing, that they might be guided in all that they do.
- For those who are working in foreign lands, where governments and other organisations are greatly opposed to the sharing of the gospel.
- This Sunday's prayer organisation is Wycliffe Bible Translators; "Our mission is to serve local partners worldwide as they bring God's word to their communities in the language which speaks to them best."

Picture and Ponder:

Scholar's Note: "Epistatēs (Master) appears in the New Testament only in Luke's gospel, always in reference to Jesus (cf. 5: 5; 8: 24, 45; 9: 33, 49).

This is the only occasion where the term was used by someone other than His disciples. Epistatēs denotes someone who possesses notable authority or power. The lepers' use of it to address Jesus indicates that they had knowledge of His miraculous ability to heal, which was widely known from His ministry in Galilee and Samaria."

What was unusual about Jesus' command to the lepers in verse 14?

What did the men demonstrate by obeying the command?

In verses 15 and 16 what three things did the Samaritan do that shows he alone of the ten understood the implications of his healing?

John 11:54-57

⁵⁴ Therefore Jesus no longer moved about publicly among the people of Judea. Instead he withdrew to a region near the wilderness, to a village called Ephraim, where he stayed with his disciples.

⁵⁵ When it was almost time for the Jewish Passover, many went up from the country to Jerusalem for their ceremonial cleansing before the Passover. ⁵⁶ They kept looking for Jesus, and as they stood in the temple courts they asked one another, “What do you think? Isn’t he coming to the festival at all?” ⁵⁷ But the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that anyone who found out where Jesus was should report it so that they might arrest him.

Luke 17:11-19

¹¹ Now on his way to Jerusalem, Jesus travelled along the border between Samaria and Galilee. ¹² As he was going into a village, ten men who had leprosy met him. They stood at a distance ¹³ and called out in a loud voice, “Jesus, Master, have pity on us!”

¹⁴ When he saw them, he said, “Go, show yourselves to the priests.” And as they went, they were cleansed.

¹⁵ One of them, when he saw he was healed, came back, praising God in a loud voice. ¹⁶ He threw himself at Jesus’ feet and thanked him—and he was a Samaritan.

¹⁷ Jesus asked, “Were not all ten cleansed? Where are the other nine?”

¹⁸ Has no one returned to give praise to God except this foreigner?”

¹⁹ Then he said to him, “Rise and go; your faith has made you well.”
